

Workshop overview

	Tuesday, May 4 th Overview: Cities & Carbon Finance	Wednesday, May 5 th Focus sector: Waste Management
09.00	Welcome by city authorities and co-organizers Mayor Gilberto Kassab and Secretary for International Relations, Mr. Alfredo Cotait Neto	Welcome back & summary of day 1	09.00
09.15	São Paulo – tackling the climate-smart development challenge [Four presentations by São Paulo City Hall Secretariats]	Waste Management in São Paulo: achievements, issues and challenges Dr. Afonso Celso Teixeira de Moraes, São Paulo City Hall	09.15
10.15	São Paulo’s involvement with city-led climate action initiatives Mark Watts, Arup and Konrad von Ritter, World Bank Institute	Waste Management in mega-cities: sharing good practice and exploring innovations Alex Mitchell, Arup	10.00
11.25	Break	Break	10.45
11.40	Cities & Climate Change: an integrated approach to development Greg Hodkinson and Peter Head, Arup	Solid Waste Management in the favelas: current status Mrs. Elisabete Franca, Superintend of Affordable Housing of the Housing Secretariat	11.00
		Waste management in poor communities: options and challenges Rainer Zimmann, Arup	11.30
12.25	A city-wide approach to carbon finance Monali Ranade, World Bank Carbon Finance Unit	Using Carbon Finance in recycling and Composting in Poor Communities Peter Cohen, World Bank Group Latin America and Caribbean Region	12.10
		Closing Remarks Eduardo Jorge, Secretary for Environment Konrad von Ritter, World Bank Institute Climate Change	12.50
13.10	Lunch	Lunch	13.00
14.10	CDM: a tool for urban development Marcos Castro-Rodriguez, World Bank Institute Carbon Finance Assist	Workshop Exercise [by invitation] Possible Projects [Part 1] Arup	14.00
14.55	Capacity Building to integrate carbon finance in cities Carole Küng, Ecos
15.40	Break	Break	15.10
16.10	Panel Discussion: Integrating carbon finance to support a city’s climate-smart development – What role for the city administration	Workshop Exercise [by invitation] Possible Projects [Part 2]	15.20
17.25	Wrap-up and Close	Wrap-up and Close	18.00